In the greater number of stocks during the day in quoted prices, and net changes at the close were at a minimum. Yet in the main, the highest quota-the market then entirely flattening out, but maintaining at all times its steadi- PATTIMORE STOCK MARKET ness and firmness of undertow. To even greater extent than yesterda however, the market for bonds stood of in comparison with that for stocks, r much in point of strength as in a tivity, and the total transactions in bonwere, indeed, largely in excess of tho in stocks-a very unusual occurrence. The dealings in bonds were at price that evinced an advancing tendency, h their main characteristic was the misc laneous and well-distributed character the Issues dealt in. The United Stat sinking fund 5s were again striking firm, attesting with great definitene that no very large quantity of the bon was offered for sale, and that any real determined buying movement in the would advance their price with consi erable rapidity.

Inter-Met. Shares Advance.

All the inter-Met. issues, not only in the bond, but in the stock market, again moved up, chiefly, no doubt, because of the lopping off of the unprofitable s sidiary lines formerly made by the par organization. Other bonds in which d ings were relatively numerous were York City 41/28, Union Pacific 48, Ore Short Line 4s, and the new Pennsylva

A development of the day that very interesting was the publication the circular letter of the great merc tile establishment of Marshall Field Co., recently addressed to their con spondents, stating it as the opinion of house that the price of print cloths other staples in the cotton goods to had touched their lowest point and an advance in the list price for t might be expected soon.

As the firm noted has always been of the first to discern impending mo ments one way or the other in the goods trade, the ground thus taken them is full of significance
